SUBJECT.

Appeal of Sivaramma, widow of Sanjangi Ramiah, Shanbhoge of Ulicrahalli and 2 other villages, Malur Taluk against the D.C.'s order re the appointment of a gumasta for her minor son the present registered Shanbhoge

---

1. No. 1664 dated the 31st August 1880
From Sooramma
States that the Shanbhogi office of Ullerahalli and two other villages, Malur Taluk has been registered under the name of her minor son that she had petitioned the D.C. Kolar to appoint one Soobannah her brother to act as Gumasta but that the D.C. disregarded her request and appointed one Surappa as gumasta that Surappa does not maintain her properly and therefore prays that her brother Soobannah be appointed as gumasta

2. No. 3902 dated the 4th Sept. 1880
~~From~~ R. 369 To the D.C. Kolar
Forwards the above for report whether ~~Soobannah~~ Surappa the now acting Gumasta holds Shanbhogi office of any other villages and why the mother of the minor registered Shanbhogi should not be allowed to appoint her own Gumasta.
